The new leading collective of the communist party of China is described and talk about learning form the view of learning in the new period, it enriched and developed the marxist concept of learning, to promote comprehensively deepen reform and realizing the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation the Chinese dream of injected with strong driving force.

Key words: the communist party; China; Marxism; learning

Introduction

Since 2013, the new leading collective of the communist party of China called on all party members must attach importance to learning constantly, inherit the successful experience of the party and To enhance their ability, make up skill panic; Pay attention to the comprehensive and systematic learning content; Strengthen the learning purpose, enhance work ability, improve the ability of solving practical problems, make party leads the people in the future study. The new leading collective of the communist party of China about learning views and opinions, form the view of learning in the new period.

Attach importance to grasp the learning is successful experience of inheritance

Xi Jinping general secretary as early as 2013, the central party school in the spring semester opening ceremony speech explicitly pointed out: "attaches great importance to grasp the learning of the party, especially leading cadres, this is a successful experience of the development of the cause of the party and the people."

The older generation of revolutionaries attaches great importance to the study, emphasis on learning to adhere to the "unified" theory with practice
After the October revolution of Russia, the older generation of revolutionaries through various channels to understand and study marxism, successively established a belief in marxism. The older generation of revolutionaries in study marxism classics at the same time, constantly drawing on the successful experience of the Russian October revolution, and to accept the guidance of the communist international. But that has failed to effectively solve various practical problems faced by the Chinese revolution. In the early 1930 s, MAO Zedong had noticed there, despise real party only book only problems, thus put forward against bookishness "point of view."
In the 30 s of the early, middle, the Chinese communist party has repeatedly appeared serious "left" errors, this can cause the party of "doctrine" and "bookishness" questioning and reflection. In October 1938, MAO Zedong after officially became the party's top leaders, to the party issued a "shape marxism in China", he stressed that "must learn to apply the theory of marxism in the specific environment". Three years through the development of study Yan an rectification movement, the whole party to establish the guiding status of MAO Zedong thought. Is the older generation of revolutionaries in pays attention to study marxism and to draw lessons from the experience of the communist party at the same time, starting from the reality of Chinese revolution and society, achieve the unity of theory and practice, under the leadership of the party central committee with MAO Zedong as the core, the Chinese people achieved the great victory of the new-democratic revolution.

The early reform and opening up, deng Xiaoping, Chen Yun and other leaders called on all the party members to conduct a study
The initial reform and opening up, comrade Deng Xiaoping in order to implement the party and the country, put forward the "twowhatever's" doesn't accord with marxism, called on the party completely and accurately understand the marxism-leninism, the MAO Zedong thought, requires the whole party must be a learning. According to the needs of the Chinese socialist modernization, Deng Xiaoping pointed out, "good learning to be respected leaders high speed, a high level of socialist modernization construction. From the practice of middle school, from books, from themselves and the experience and lessons of middle school. To overcome conservatism and bookish."
"At the same time, Chen Yun, have to the call of the party sent to learn. In fact, as early as in 1939, Chen Yun published in the context of "how to make a communist party member" the learning as a measure of a communist party member is the important condition of competent, and put forward the "communist party member's slogan is: learning, learning, and learning. "In this way, the call of the party in Deng Xiaoping, Chen Yun and other leaders, the party started again another climax of learning. All party members by learning to established the ideological line of seeking truth from facts, smoothly promote the great process of China's reform and opening up, and has achieved great success in the early of reform and opening-up. In every major turning point in history, the party's call for the party will lose no time learning to upsurge. Through this study to upsurge, all party comrades more determined and ideological unity, more rich and powerful abilities, so that the cause of the party and the people create a new situation.

The current strengthen learning, enhance the ability of the urgency

Solve the new problems facing the new situation requires the party to strengthen learning, enhance ability

In today's world of knowledge update very fast. As early as March 1, 2013, Xi Jinping, the general secretary in the central party school speech pointed out: "in this day and age, the knowledge update cycle is shorten, all kinds of new knowledge, new situation, new things emerge in endlessly", "In the era of farming, a few years of a person reading, can use all my life; in the industrial economy era, more than ten years of a person reading, enough for a lifetime, in the era of knowledge economy, a person must learn the rest of my life, to keep pace with progressive era. "At present, the party faces an important subject, is how to correctly understand and properly handle China's development after the new situation new problems appear constantly. Know, the only way to solve these problems is to enhance the ability to solve the problem, improve their learning ability is, to integrate theory with practice, apply the knowledge into practice, and have to be to learn from practice, solve various problems in the practice of new skills.

Complete the expected each goal task requires the party to strengthen learning, enhance ability

Our party in the early period of revolution and construction, and reform and opening up have encountered all sorts of difficulties and hardships, the older generation of leaders of the party through hard exploration, the arduous struggle win the success of the above each historical period. Put forward the objectives of the party's 18 mission, will inevitably encounter difficulties from all sides, risks and challenges, and to complete each goal task scheduled, key will see we have to overcome, and overcome the difficulties and the ability of the risks and challenges. Enhance overcome, overcome difficulties and risks and challenges will strengthen the ability of learning, to integrate theory with practice, apply the knowledge into practice, and have to be to learn from practice, in practice to improve their own ability again. This mission is to achieve a new stage in the new period puts forward new requirements to all party comrades.

Therefore, all party comrades must have ability enough sense of urgency, to efforts to enhance ability, constantly enhance ability to moment. To keep in mind that "while the iron is hot still need their own hard" way, only to enhance the party ability, "two" one hundred goals can be achieved, and the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation the Chinese dream to dream come true.

Strengthening the comprehensive and systematic learning content civilization

Strengthen the comprehensive and systematic learning content, in the study of marxist philosophy at the same time, study the party's history, national history, national policies, laws and regulations and other relevant business knowledge.

Learn and master the marxist philosophy

Marxist philosophy is the basis of marxist theory. The political bureau of the CPC central committee has successively has historical materialism basic principle and methodology, basic principle and methodology of dialectical materialism to carry on the collective learning. This reflects the xi as general secretary of the CPC central committee's emphasis on study of marxist philosophy.

To study marxist philosophy is to earnestly study and master the historical materialism, social basic contradiction analysis. Constantly in the process of know the world and transform the world know law, rule, the productive forces and production relations, economic basis and superstructure, two together to observe the contradiction movement, to observe the social basic contradiction as a whole. Upholding and developing socialism with Chinese characteristics, is to through continuous development of social productive forces, to meet the increasing material and cultural needs of the people in our country.

To study marxist philosophy will also study hard and master the material production is the foundation of the social life of the point of view, the people being creators of history. Stick to concentrate on construction and wholeheartedly seeks the development, promote the continuous development of social productivity. At the same time, to insist on the people-based, humanist, the good implementation, safeguard and develop the fundamental interests of the masses as a starting point and foothold of all work, and make development more fair benefit all the people.

To learn history of the party and country seriously

Study history of the party, the national history, is for the sake of taking history as a mirror, suggest, improve the use of historical vision cognition law of development, grasp the direction, ability to guide practical work. The political bureau of the CPC central committee has the Chinese characteristic socialism theory and practice, the governance of the state in the history of our country collective learning. Of the CPC central committee general secretary xi jinping pointed out: "the history textbook is one of the best. Learning party history, national history, upholding and developing socialism with Chinese characteristics, is to continue to push forward the cause of the party and the state of various compulsory. This is not only a compulsory subject, and must be repaired.

Careful study history of the party and country, help the comrades to understand historical position of the party and national development, to better help the comrades to shoulder the historical responsibility and mission. The communist party of China leads the people in the hard exploration and great practice of new-democratic revolution, finally established the people's masters of the new China. After the founding of new China, the communist party of China continue to shoulder the historical mission of realizing the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation. To this end, completed the socialist transformation, has carried on the exploration of socialist construction, promote the great process of the reform and opening up, finally found the socialism with Chinese characteristics that the only way for realizing the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation. Systematic study history of the party and country, only to deeply recognize the marxism, MAO Zedong thought, deng xiaoping theory and the socialism with Chinese characteristics, is historically inevitable, the people's choice; Systematic study history of the party and country, only how to deeply understand the theory of the party is concluded from their own history and practice, and how change along with the development of The Times and practice and enrich the improvement, innovation and development, to set up confidence for the road of socialism with Chinese characteristics, the theory system of self-confidence, self-confidence.

Emphasized the study of purpose

Xi Jinping general secretary pointed out: "to strengthen learning, fundamental purpose is to enhance work ability, improve the level of solving practical problems. "The party has always advocated theory with practice, the theory and the practice unifies. Requires us to combine theory with practice to learn the research focus and solve the contradictions and problems, to discover the existence question, dare to face up to the existing problems, and to new ideas, new methods, new train of thought for concrete way to solve the contradictions and problems. Time to study with questions, thanks to the people, for the teacher to do dry middle school, learn, and to promote the learning and use, long learning phase, must oppose "air-to-air" in the study and work, remember the "talk is harmful, pragmatic development. The great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation the Chinese dream will be realized in our work.
To sum up, the new concept of the communist party of China leads the collective learning is comprehensively deepen reform background, and this period is doomed to be the party is an important turning point in history, all party comrades assumes responsibility, which requires the inherit and carry forward the party's and the early reform and opening up the revolution attaches great importance to study the successful experience of; Will pay attention to the comprehensive and systematic learning content; The purpose to strengthen learning, enhance their own ability, make up the ability to scare, improve the ability of solving practical problems, make party leads the people in the future study. Study in inherited and developed the marxist view, on the basis of the time spirit of "to take on responsibilities", "while the iron is hot still need their own hard" power consciousness, is a distinct characteristic of Xi Jinping general learning concept. Xi Jinping, general secretary of learning concept, must make the party again another climax of learning, to promote the socialism with Chinese characteristics comprehensively deepen reform and realizing the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation provided strong impetus of the Chinese dream.
